

General explanations and information for the public

Guidelines for self defense in open ground:

If you hear a siren and you are in open ground, lie down on the ground and protect your head with your hands

Why is it important to lie down on the ground when you hear a siren?

